

Dominic Meek

Appointed consultant orthopaedic surgeon in 2003 he works at the Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow with his consultant colleagues to provide a regional complex young hip, revision and peri-prosthetic fracture and infection arthroplasty service. Honorary Associate Clinical Professor Glasgow University, a previous member of the British Hip Society Executive and an active member of BORS (co-organizer 2016 meeting at Glasgow University).

He is a member of the BOA research committee, President of the West of Scotland Orthopaedic Research Society (WoSORS) and cofounder (2009) of the Glasgow Orthopaedic Research Society (GLORI) for fundamental science research at the Centre for Cell Engineering Glasgow University.