

Panos Thomas, MD

Mr Panos Thomas is a Sports and Knee Surgeon, practicing at the Whittington Hospital in London. He is the current Tutor in Orthopaedic Sports Injuries, appointed by the Royal College of Surgeons in England. He developed the UCL MSc in Sports and Exercise Medicine, being the Programme Director until 2010. He is the President of BOSTAA and a member of the London Deanery STC in Sports and Exercise Medicine. He was selected as an Orthopaedic Specialist at the London Olympic Games 2012. He was one of the organizers of the "World Sports Trauma Congress 2012" in London.

He has widely presented and published articles. Also, he is the author of two books: "Key Topics in Sports Medicine" by Routledge 2006
"The BMA guide to Sports Injuries" by DK 2010.
"Key Clinical Topics in Sports and Exercise Medicine" by JP 2014.

Mr Thomas has been involved with the treatment of elite athletes and advices Professional Football Clubs such Arsenal FC, MK Dons, Barnet FC and other Sport organisations.